asked questions about African-Americans in a non-judgmental and sometimes comical matter of fact tone. Are you or your loved ones experiencing chaos in your life, at work, and in matters of the heart or your health? Are you spending a lot of time and money getting help the traditional way only to find out you still don't have peace and joy, or know your life's purpose, or your soul mate? Have you tried alternative solutions, hands-on healing, counseling, workshops, crystals, psychics, religion, spirituality, and everything else out there? Or, are you one of the "lucky ones" who seems to have the perfect life yet still feel like something's missing? The author of this amazing and revealing book went through all of that and more! Caroline was born with the question "Why?" in her mouth and drove all her teachers crazy trying to find the answers. Unable to get satisfaction and to escape what seemed like mental torture, Caroline became totally physical by joining the Canadian military in 1967 as a Physical Education and Recreation Instructor. Pushing herself physically suppressed her mental body for a short period of time. Although excelling in all that she did, the pull of the "Why?" did not die, it just became stronger. Sixteen years later Caroline left her physical, military life and completely immersed herself in an invisible, metaphysical world seeking the key that would unlock the door to all the answers. Why are we here? What is our place in the universe? What is the purpose of life? The questions have been asked for centuries. But they all revolve around what is perhaps the most fundamental question of all: Does God exist? -- Inside this booklet: -- Asking the Crucial Questions -- Evidence All Around Us -- The Beginning of the Universe -- Our Awesome Universe: How Big is Big? -- Science and Discomfiting Discoveries -- Our Amazing Spaceship Earth -- The Importance of Life-Sustaining Water -- The Giver of Life -- The Tiny Miracle That's Toppling Evolution -- A Deeper Look at the Evidence -- Scientists' Thundering Silence -- Life's Purpose and the Consequences of Ideas -- Groping for Meaning and Morality -- Why Were You Born? -- Man's Natural

Hostility Toward God -- Meet God -- How Does God Reveal Himself? -- A God Not Bound by Space and Time -- Our Window of Opportunity "...wonderful way for adult sons and daughters to hopefully improve relationships with their Dad, learn something new or just have intriguing conversations with their fathers..."

Author Christine Jackson What do you really know about your Dad? Do you know much about his childhood? The difficulties he has faced? The fun things he did? The things he wished he had done? Your dad is so much more than the man who raised you. He grew up in a time very different from yours—the beliefs, habits, and expectations were very different, as were the way things were done. Your dad has seen a lot in his life, getting to hear his journey will help you to understand him in a whole new light. Start the conversation with your dad, especially if he is elderly. This book is a guide which provides questions to ask, as well as how and when to ask them. Use this as a way to grow, mend and/or heal the relationship between you and your dad; preserve this man's journey through life and in particular his role as Dad. His story is his legacy to you. "...this book, Do You Know Your Dad's Story? becomes more valuable as the decades slip past, providing a snapshot in time not only of the individuals but also of the era in which they lived..." p.m.terrell, international award-winning, author

The first question is "Would Jesus Christ do that?" The second question is "What would Jesus do?" Who Can Benefit From This Book?

concept • Financial topics including budgets, credit card debt, plus 14 other important financial issues that seriously complicate most marriages The act of questioning is the primary speech interaction between an institutional speaker and someone outside the institution. These roles dictate their language practices. "Why Do You Ask?" is the first collected volume to focus solely on the question/answer process, drawing on a range of methodological approaches like Conversational Analysis, Discourse Analysis, Discursive Psychology, and Sociolinguistics-and using as data not just medical, legal, and educational environments, but also less-studied institutions like telephone call centers, broadcast journalism (i.e. talk show interviews), academia, and telemarketing. An international roster of well-known contributors addresses such issues as: the relationship between the syntax of the question and its discourse function; the kind of institutional work that questions perform; the degree to which the questioner can control the direction of the conversation; and how questions are used to repackage responses, to construct meaning, and to serve the institutional goals of speakers. Why Do You Ask? will appeal to linguists and others interested in institutional discourse, as well as those interested in the grammatical/pragmatic nature of questions. This is a comprehensive question and answer review book for Physician Assistant (PA) students preparing for the PANCE - and for the practising PS preparing for requalification. Over 1200 exam-type questions are listed with explanations, plus a 200-question practise test for self-assessment. A book that helps teachers answer the tricky questions that students ask about God, using a fresh and accessible account of Scripture, church teaching, theology, and contemporary learning. A comprehensive review of the practice and most recent research on coaching Coaching Researched: Using Coaching Psychology to Inform Your Research and Practice brings together in one authoritative volume a collection to the most noteworthy papers from the past 15 years
